Number of Pensioners on the Pay Roll

RAPIDLY GROWING LARGER.

It Will Require an Appropriation of $135,000,000 to Pay Pensioners During the Next Fiscal Year—Congressmen Growing Uneasy Over the Present State of Affairs—Other Washington Dispatches.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 5.—It is not to be concealed that a good many members of congress are looking with a good deal of solemnity upon the appropriation for pensions that is asked for the fiscal year which begins on the 1st of next July. Even those who feel the kindest to the old soldiers are growing serious at the contemplation of appropriating $135,000,000 in one year—not because they are disposed to be finicky, but because those who do not receive pensions are showing signs of restiveness. And $135,000,000 is not the limit, either, for the special bills are pouring in and more general bills are proposed. Two general bills are demanded by the advocates of liberal pensions—the service pension and the prisoner of war pension—which will add, it is estimated, over $60,000,000 a year to the sum now required to carry out the laws now in force.

Naturally there is a delicacy about calling a halt. The representatives of the people are appreciative of the value of the services which were rendered by the preservers of the Union, and they do not wish to give offense. But I find that quite a number of congressmen come to Washington this winter with minds filled with protests of the conservative element of their constituents against inconsiderate pension legislation, and one of the best known members of the house gives it as his opinion that it will be more difficult than ever to secure the passage of meritorious measures because of the hugeness of the appropriations now required. He himself is an old soldier and has a fine record as a brave officer and his sympathies are with his old comrades, but he does not hesitate to say that it will be impossible to pass any more general pension bills until there is a decrease of the appropriations. A good many, I am told, are of this notion.

Ten years ago the number of pensioners was 250,802, and the amount of pension money paid was $56,777,174. In 1885 the number of pensioners had increased to 345,125 and the amount paid to $66,102,267. This year there are 537,944 pensioners who receive in the aggregate $106,936,855. So it will be seen that the increase in the number of pensioners and the amount paid is increasing with considerable rapidity. It is estimated that on the 1st day of July, 1892, there will be on the rolls 586,717 pensioners under existing laws. The figuring is done in this way:

Total number of claims to be allowed	412,047
To be allowed during 1892	160,000
Probable number of original claims	80,000
Probable number now on rolls	80,000
Average value of each pension during 1892, at $9 per month	$108.00
Average annual value (June 30, 1890) of all pensions below $12 per month	74.52
Net cost of each increase case chargeable to act of June 27, 1890	$33.48
Cost to pay 40,000 pensioners under this act (allowed in 1891) during 1892, 40,000 at $108		$4,320,000
Net cost to pay 40,000 pensioners during 1892 who were increased during 1891, and whose cost during 1892, under general laws, is included in estimate thereunder, $108 less $74.52 equals $33.48, 40,000 at $33.48		1,339,200
Original cases to be allowed in 1892:
Cost ten months of 1891, 90,000 at $90	$7,200,000
Cost twelve months of 1892, 80,000 at $108	8,640,000
		15,840,000
Pensions to be increased in 1892:
Cost ten months of 1891, 80,000 at $27.90	$2,232,000
Cost 80,000 at $33.48	2,678,400
Net cost chargeable to act of June 27, 1890, in increase cases		4,910,400
Total cost of act of June 27, 1890, during 1892		$26,409,600
Cost of pensions under general laws during 1892		106,763,465
Grand total cost of pensions during 1892		$133,173,065

Senate and House Proceedings.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 5.—The senate passed Mr. Call's resolution directing the superintendent of the labor bureau to examine the phosphate industry of Florida; also, after debate, the joint resolution for issuing arms to settlers in North and South Dakota and Nebraska.

Mr. Pugh made an extended argument against the Federal election bill.

Several minor measures were taken from the calendar and passed.

In the house the bill making guardians responsible for the pension money of minors was passed.

The pension appropriation bill was discussed without action.

A Reapportionment Bill.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 5.—The Republican leaders in the house have decided to prepare a reapportionment bill without waiting until the New York census controversy is decided. Chairman Dunnell, in accordance with this decision, has begun work on the figures furnished by Superintendent Porter, showing the apportionment for each state, based on increases in the membership of the house from 332 to 375 inclusive. Mr. Dunnell has not decided on the number of members that the bill will provide. It is intended to have the bill introduced at an early day and passed by the house before the Christmas recess.

Public Building at Toledo.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.—A bill appropriating $50,000 for the erection and extension of a public building at Toledo, O., was introduced in the house yesterday by Representative Haynes, of Ohio.

TWO KILLED, SIX HURT.

Chicago and Alton Passenger Train Wrecked in Illinois.

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 5.—The Chicago and Alton through Kansas City express, called the "Hummer," which left Chicago last night, was run into by a Wabash coal train at 2 o'clock at Jacksonville, Ill.

Two passengers were instantly killed and six others seriously hurt, some of whom may die. The Chicago and Alton express had stopped on the crossing to take on passengers, when the heavy freight coming from the south, and which was, according to the statement of the Wabash officials unmanageable, came thundering along and crashed into the rear sleeper, splitting it entirely in two pieces.

The engine rushed through the sleeping car, throwing the sleeping passengers, dead and wounded, to the right and left, piling cars of coal in a huge mass upon the demolished passenger coach.

A few minutes afterward a headless body was found sticking out of the ruins, and taken out. A little while afterward the head was found and placed beside the trunk. The body was identified as that of James Riffe, of Fountain Place, Ill., who boarded the train at Delavan.

The next body recovered was that of Fred. Smith, a merchant of Pekin, Ill. His body was badly crushed.

Six other passengers were taken from the wreck with broken limbs and internal injuries.

General Manager Hayes, of the Wabash, is of the opinion that the Chicago and Alton train did not stop on the crossing, but backed onto the crossing to get a start, and by so doing got in the way of the freight.

CRUSHED TO DEATH.

Terrible Accident at a Joliet, Illinois, Blast Furnace.

JOLIET, Ill., Dec. 5.—A terrible accident, with loss of life, occurred at the blast furnace department of the Illinois Iron and Steel company's works yesterday. The blast furnace, which was blown out for relining and repairs, made necessary since the recent explosion, which was also attended with loss of life, fell to the ground yesterday, when about twenty men were engaged at work on it. Eleven men were at work in the inside at the bottom, and six on top when the accident happened.

The work of rescuing the victims was begun at once, but it was not until late in the afternoon that the bodies were all recovered. Seven bodies were removed, mutilated beyond a semblance of humanity.

The dead are:
Nels. Larson.
John Federson.
Gus. Loosa.
Thompson Swanson.
Slaus Fasmeck.
Frank Miller.
John Mumusstadis.

Those most seriously injured are: Oscar Lind, Joseph Mason, John Oleson, August Wentzerg, A. Seisenair, Peter Erickson, John Larson, Patrick Kilcullen.

The accident was caused by the giving away of one of the heavy columns on which the huge blast furnace rests. The loss to the company is estimated at $75,000.

KING KALAKUA ARRIVES.

He is Welcomed to Our Shores by Prominent Californians.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 5.—The United States steamship Charleston, with King Kalakua on board, arrived at 11 o'clock yesterday morning from Honolulu. The Charleston on passing Alcatraz Island was greeted by a royal salute of twenty-one guns in honor of the king.

As the war ship passed up the harbor many ships dipped their flags. Gen. Gibbon, commanding the division of the Pacific, and Hawaiian Consul McKinley, met the Charleston in the government steamer Governor McDowell, boarded her and welcomed the king to the city. Late in the afternoon his majesty came ashore and was escorted to the Palace hotel by Gen Gibbon and staff, in full uniform. At the hotel the king was met by Governor Waterman, Mayor Pond and other officials and prominent citizens.

Col. McFarlane, the king's chamberlain, said in reference to his majesty's health, that it had much improved since he left Honolulu. He would remain in California for five or six weeks and would not go east. The king's eyes are only slightly troubled, but enough so to make it probable that the services of an oculist will be required during his stay. Before Kalakua left Honolulu he issued a proclamation providing for the control of the nation during his absence, in which he appointed his sister, Princess Liliuokalani regent.

Prominent Citizens Arrested.

BOSTON, Dec. 5.—Yesterday warrants were issued for the arrest of twelve prominent men, some of them citizens of Boston, others citizens of neighboring towns and cities, for violating the law by moving out of town before election, thereby losing their legal residence, and then returning to vote in their old precincts.

A SIOUX MEMORIAL.

THEY CLAIM TO BE STARVING.

Hollow Horn Bear Wants to Take a Trip to Washington at the Government's Expense—Acting Indian Commissioner Belt Makes a Statement to Secretary Noble—Latest from the Frontier.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 5.—The following memorial, signed by 102 Sioux Indians, received by the president, has been referred to the acting commissioner of Indian affairs:

ROSEBUD AGENCY, Nov. 6, 1890.

GREAT FATHER—This day I will write you a letter with a good heart. When we gave up the Black Hills, you told us in that treaty that a man would get three pounds of beef a day; the meaning was three pounds for one man. Besides you said we could get food just like the soldiers. You did not, however, give it to us at this rate.

Great father, we are starving, and beg you therefore to give to us just so, as you have promised. Thirty men of us get for eighteen days only one cow to eat; that is the reason I mention it. And if you do not well understand it, send me, Hollow Horn Bear, travelling money, and I will come with five men.

Great father, if you do not want to do so, then please let us have a soldier for our father agent, when our present father's term is out.

Great father, please do us this favor.

In reply to this memorial Acting Commissioner Belt in a letter to Secretary Noble says that the law does not promise the Indians "food just like soldiers," but only a ration of beef, flour, bacon, coffee, sugar and beans, or such other articles in lieu thereof as the commissioner of Indian affairs may decide.

In reply to the charges that the Indians signed an agreement that rations would not be reduced and that the supply was reduced 2,000,000 pounds and that those signing the agreement felt imposed upon, Mr Belt says: "The Indians received rations to the full amount warranted by the appropriations made by congress."

In regard to the complaint made by Gen. Brooke that the Indians did not get the additional supply of beef, Mr. Belt says that in view of the fact that owing to the drouth of last summer and the scarcity of grazing on the reservation, the cattle delivered under contracts in October at will no doubt shrink considerably during the coming winter, when severe weather prevails and the range grazing is difficult and scarce.

A tabulated statement accompanies the letter showing the amount of supplies furnished the several agencies, and it is stated that in addition to these supplies, there was expended in open market prior to the passage of the Indian appropriation act and subsequently, but before contracts were executed and approved, the following sums, viz: For Pine Ridge agency $8,500; for Rosebud agency, $4,100, and for Standing Rock agency, $1,100.

A Hopeful Outlook.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 5.—Gen. Schofield yesterday afternoon received a dispatch from Gen. Brooke, stating that forty lodges of Indians have left the Rosebud camp since they moved across the White river to the edge of the "Bad Lands." There are, he says, strong signs of disintegration among the Indians in camp, they being about evenly divided as to whether they shall return to the agency or not. From all that Gen Brooke can learn about their desires, he says that he is convinced that a majority of them want to come in.

War department officials are much gratified with Gen. Brooke's dispatch, and now look for a speedy settlement of the Indian troubles.

General Miles Talks.

CHICAGO, Dec. 5.—Regarding the Indian situation Gen. Miles said: "I do not think any engagement will occur immediately, but an outbreak may occur at any time. I am taking every precaution to prevent one. I shall go to the northwest in a day or two and give general directions, but not necessarily to take the field in person."

SITTING BULL'S CAPTURE

About to Be Made When the President is Heard From.

LA CROSSE, Wis., Dec. 5.—Dr. Frank Powell returned to his home in this city Wednesday from Standing Rock Agency, N. Dak., accompanied by William F. Cody (Buffalo Bill), and R. H. Haslam, (Pony Bob). Col. Cody stated that his party was in the heart of the Indian country, seventeen miles from the camp of Sitting Bull, where the ghost dance was in progress.

"Our mission was to capture Sitting Bull," said Col. Cody, "and we would have accomplished our object had not a courier overtaken us on the edge of the reservation with dispatches from the president ordering our party to return without carrying Gen. Miles' orders into effect. Our trip was not attended with any danger. We were sent there not on a mission of assassination, but capture.

"The trouble as it is now is unprecedented. Our party traveled 1,006 miles in less than seven days, and our surprise was great in being recalled from our mission. We could have taken the bull, horse and all into captivity, I am sure, without the loss of a single life. OPERA HOUSE BURNED.

The Fire Causes a Panic in a Hotel—A Fire in Pittsburg.

CHICAGO, Dec. 5.—The Timmerman opera house in Englewood, a suburb of Chicago, was destroyed by fire shortly after 1 o'clock last night. Fortunately no performance was given last night, but as it was there were many close escapes from death. In the building, occupying the second and third floors, is a large fashionable hotel that was filled with guests.

When the flames burst out in the theatre a panic ensued in the hotel, and as many of the guests had retired for the night they came tumbling down the stairs in a wild scramble to reach the street. Some were overcome by the dense clouds of suffocating smoke that rolled in volumes through the hallways, but fortunately all were rescued and borne to the open air by the firemen. A rough estimate of the loss places it at between $75,000 and $100,000. It is supposed the fire was caused by the furnace.

Big Fire in Pittsburg.

PITTSBURG, Dec. 5.—Fire started at 1:15 this morning in E. Maggin's firework and cracker factory, 916 Liberty street, and at this hour is still burning. Four firemen were caught under falling walls and seriously injured. It is thought several other firemen may be still under the debris. A searching party is now looking for any other unfortunate that may have been caught in the tumbling mass of bricks. The loss will not fall short of $100,000.

A Kansas Town on Fire.

SALINA, Kan., Dec. 5.—Reports from Brookfield, this county, says nearly the whole town is on fire. The flames started early this forenoon and one business block and the Central hotel are nearly consumed. The town has about 400 inhabitants and no way to extinguish the fire except by buckets. A strong wind is blowing. No estimate of the loss can be obtained.

UNEXPLAINABLE ROBBERY.

KANSAS CITY, Dec. 5.—Detectives are at work upon one of the most extensive, as it is mysterious, diamond robberies ever perpetrated in the city. The diamonds were the property of Mrs. Kirk B. Armour and when stolen were in a private box in the vault of a safe deposit company, where they had been stored. They consisted of earrings, rings and other articles of jewelry, and were worth fully $10,000.

As soon as the robbery was detected, a list of the diamonds was made out and detectives were employed to locate them. But the shrewdest of detectives were baffled in their search for a clew, and, so far as can be learned, not the slightest headway towards the recovery of the jewelry has been made. The detectives are puzzled to know how the jewels were extracted from the tin box. As is well known, two keys are required to open the box, each fitting in separate keyholes. One of the keys is held by the deposit company and the other by the party renting the box, and neither can open the lock unless the other is present.

Potash Tank Explodes.

CINCINNATI, Dec. 5.—By the explosion of a potash tank in the A. L. McReynolds chemical works, in this city, Louis Schloss, John Printy and John Feht, were so badly burned they may die. The building was wrecked.

Smallpox Scare.

FINDLAY, O., Dec. 5.—The smallpox has broken out in the town of McComb, eight miles west of this city. The first case was that of Mrs. Joshua Simon, who, on returning from visiting friends in Chicago, was attacked by the dreaded disease. Her children, who were attending the public school, have been exposed, and fears are entertained that smallpox will spread throughout the town, which contains about 2,000 inhabitants. The premises of Mrs. Simon are quarantined, and every effort will be taken to prevent the spread of the malady. There is much excitement and apprehension in the village.

State Board of Equalization.

COLUMBUS, O., Dec. 5.—The state board of equalization has been informed that twenty counties had not reported their abstracts of real property to the auditor of state and that it would be several weeks before work would be ready for the board. A resolution was adopted that when the board adjourns it be until Jan. 6. A resolution containing a salary grab clause, in which the members of the board were to receive pay for the days during adjournment, was overwhelmingly defeated.

Valuable Express Package Stolen.

ZANESVILLE, O., Dec. 5.—At 6 o'clock Wednesday night the United States Express messenger left a sachel containing several thousand dollars in packages hanging up in the office of the Baltimore and Ohio depot while he stepped out on some business, but when he returned five minutes afterward the door was unlocked and the contents of the sachel gone. The express officials are very reticent, refusing to say how much is the loss. Detectives are at work.

A Desperado's Deed.

LIMA, O., Dec. 5.—Marvin Kuntz, the murderer of William Campau at Fostoria, was arrested yesterday near New Knoxville, Auglaize county, for carrying concealed weapons, it not being known then that he was the desperado. At the trial he pulled out a revolver and told the crowd to scatter, and when the stampede was over he was left in the room alone. He went out, untied the horse and rode away, and has not been seen since.

Plot to Escape from Jail.

TIFFIN, O., Dec. 5.—While the wife of Sheriff Hepp was alone in jail, a prisoner named Hoover, awaiting trial for grand larceny, set fire to the straw in his cot. NATIONAL ALLIANCE.

A Third Political Party to Be in the 1892 Campaign.

OCALA, Fla., Dec. 5.—The National Alliance met at 10.30 yesterday and the first hour was devoted to a discussion of inside topics. A. Gallaher, fraternal delegate from the Workingmen's Reform League, of New York city, and W. H. Carsey, of Washington, D. C., from the American anti-Monopoly League, then addressed the convention, each speaking for half an hour. Their remarks were principally directed in favor of a closer bond between all National organizations of this character, but against consolidation. They also advised the National Alliance to stand by its St. Louis platform, to take the lead in any National political movement which might grow out of it, and asserted that other organizations would follow.

At the afternoon session, Messrs. Holden, Williams and Rice, representing the Citizens Alliance, of Kansas, made addresses which, in the main followed in the same line of thought and argument. They said that their organization was as deeply interested in the farmers' movement as was the Alliance itself. They saw no reason why merchants, traders, etc., should not unite in promoting this movement, and they asked for a committee of conference to arrange closer relations between the Citizens and Farmers' Alliances. The request was granted and a committee appointed.

Messrs. Gallagher and Carey, from the New York Workingmen's Reform League and Anti-monopoly League respectively, addressed the convention and asked that organizers be sent to New York state to form sub-Alliances there, getting the membership from among the mechanics and laborers.

Col. Livingstone replied and said that he did not regard it as fitting or politic that all classes of men should belong to the same organization. They should keep up organizations of their own, but should fraternize more closely and confer together upon measures of public policy. The masses of the country were in the same boat and should work together. "The money power of this country," he continued, "backed up by the money power of Europe is our common enemy. To meet this enemy and to cope with it successfully, co-operation is necessary and it must come about. I therefore recommend co-operation and fraternity with other National bodies but not consolidation."

A resolution was passed allowing three cents mileage each way, and a per diem of $2 to all delegates to the National meeting.

The special committee appointed to estimate the work of the convention reported the work would probably be done by Saturday at midnight.

The five-minute rule on speeches was adopted.

A resolution providing for the appointment of one delegate from each state Alliance to the Asheville, N. C., investigating convention Dec. 17, was adopted.

The thanks of the convention were unanimously voted to President Rogers, of the Florida Alliance, for the hospitality extended to the Alliance.

A resolution providing for the government taking charge of all improvements of the Mississippi river was referred to the transportation committee.

Congressman-elect Pickler, of South Dakota, made a speech advocating the free coinage of silver.

A resolution calling for a grand encampment of the Farmers' Alliance was referred to the committee on good of the order.

A resolution calling upon state and National legislatures to reduce the salaries of public officers to more moderate sums was referred to the committee on legislation.

A number of Kansas delegates, including J. W. Rice, John Davis, and Delegate Vincent are working upon a call for a National convention to form a new party, the date being fixed on Feb. 23, 1891, and the place Cincinnati. Delegates from the National Farmers' Alliance, and all other National organizations in sympathy with it, or which endorse the St. Louis platform as well as the editors of the "reform press" throughout the country will be invited to take part in the convention. The new party to be formed would doubtless work on the same lines as the People's party in Kansas, that is, renounce all affiliation with the other political parties and place a National ticket of its own in the field. This call when completed will undoubtedly be presented to the National Alliance for its endorsement. Some of the men in the movement, however, are not convinced that this course will be wise or politic.

Congressman-elect Davis, of Kansas, said yesterday's afternoon call for the conference endorses the Alliance platform and invites all organizations in sympathy with that declaration to send delegates to Cincinnati. It has been extensively signed by Alliance members and by delegates of other organizations. When asked if the call touched upon other measures of public policy than the St. Louis platform, Mr. Davis said it did. It lays down, he said, four propositions with reference to National reforms, viz: finance, transportation, land and labor. The call will not be presented to the National Alliance for its endorsement as a body, but will be circulated for signatures in thirty-six Alliance states, and perhaps in all the states of the union. Mr. Davis further said the convention would undoubtedly place a presidential ticket in the field in 1892. The call he said would soon be published.

The members of the Alliance press committee could not be found until late in the afternoon and then they were utterly ignorant of the transactions of the convention. The correspondents in attendance on the convention united in a letter to President Polk, complaining of the negligence of the press committee and asking him to use his influence to better the facilities for obtaining the doings of the convention. The president referred to this communication in the convention and urged on the press committee the importance of attending to its duties. Subsequently all the correspondents in the city met and appointed a committee of three to wait on President Polk and ask him to define his policy with reference to conveying information to the press. He promised to have the official stenographer of the convention confer with the chairman of the press committee at frequent intervals during the day and night and give out promptly all information relating to matters of public interest.

SURGEON GENERAL BAXTER DEAD.

Death Creates Another Vacancy in the United States Army.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 5.—Surgeon General Baxter, of the army, who was stricken with paralysis on Monday last, died at his residence in this city at an early hour yesterday morning. Dr. Baxter was born in Vermont in 1837. He practiced law when a young man, and later became a physician, and in June, 1861, he entered the army as surgeon of the Twelfth Massachusetts volunteers, and the next year became brigade surgeon.

After the war Surgeon Baxter was appointed assistant medical surveyor with the rank of lieutenant colonel, and in 1872 President Grant promoted him to the chief medical surveyorship of the army, and he held that position until Aug. 16, last, when President Harrison appointed him surgeon general.

THE HARRUFS DISCHARGED

James Harruf Acquitted of Murder in the Second Degree—Mrs. Harruf and the Daughter Discharged.

The case of James Harruf and wife and daughter, of Green Camp, which have been continued from time, and with which readers of the STAR are familiar, were finally disposed of in common pleas court Thursday.

The case of the State of Ohio against James Harruf, indicted for murder in the second degree and incest, was taken up first. After the State's evidence had been heard, J. C. Johnston, attorney for plaintiff, argued that the testimony was insufficient to convict, and made a motion that the court charge the jury to bring in a verdict of not guilty. The motion was granted and the jury acted in accordance in regard to the charge of murder.

The prosecuting attorney then nollied the indictment of incest against Harruf, the indictment of murder in the second degree and incest against Mrs. Harruf, and the indictment of incest against Amanda Harruf.

Agosta.

Thinking there was too many correspondents from Agosta was the reason I was still last week.

The horrible death of Elmer Seidle was a shock to the entire neighborhood, and we all sympathize with his old parents. The shock to these honored citizens is almost beyond their strength, as old age and infirmities are telling. Elmer was their only son and help, and was an honest and reliable worker. Those who knew him were aware of his worst fault, the worst to himself.

The oyster supper at Normal Hall, by the G. A. R. and W. R. C., Thanksgiving night, was a success, both socially and financially.

The party and dance at W. F. Dutton's was enjoyed by both parties.

There came near being a serious accident just east of town Sunday, Nov. 23. A. J. Thompson and family and John F. Gray, from east of Cochranton, were visiting with Mrs. B. Miller, south of Agosta. When returning they were so absorbed in conversation that they did not notice the cars until they were almost on the railroad crossing, and then not until the horses scared and they were thrown from the buggy. The buggy shaft was broken and the occupants' clothes torn, their faces bruised and a general smash up was the result.

Dec. 4. GLEANER.

The right way to cure catarrh is to eradicate the poisonous taint which causes the disease, by taking Hood's Sarsaparilla

If ever there was a strange case it is the one recently tried on the courts at Dublin and the decision of which is still reserved. Annie Williams, an infant, through her mother, sued a railroad company for damages for injuries received during a collision. This of itself is not strange, but the strangeness lies in the fact that the injuries of which the plaintiff complains were received before she was born. There are many people who are fond of going to law, but such litigious precocity has no counterpart.

An honest Swede tells his story in plain but unmistakable language for the benefit of the public. "One of my children took a severe cold and got the croup. I gave her a teaspoonful of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and in five minutes later I gave her one more. By this time she coughed up the gathering in her throat. Then she went to sleep and slept good for fifteen minutes. Then she got up and vomited; then she went back to bed and slept good for the remainder of the night. She got the croup the second night and I gave the same remedy with the same good results. I write this because I thought there might be some one in the same need and not knowing the true merits of this wonderful medicine. CHARLES A. STYLES THAT ARE APPROVED AT HOME AND ABROAD

Latest Fashions as Expressed in Dresses for Evening Wear—Description of Some of the Picturesque Bodices That Are Now Worn.

There is a great variety in the cut of bodices. Many of the new bodices are decidedly picturesque. One made in a pretty old fashioned Louis XV satin brocade had a quaint [illegible] sleeve reaching almost to the [illegible] draperies about the neck all made of [illegible] and intermixed with old point d'Alencon. This was accompanied by a jacket basque with large brocaded buttons, the basque cut up and plaited on either side at the hips. It was very much like the sketches handed down to us from the period of Charles I.

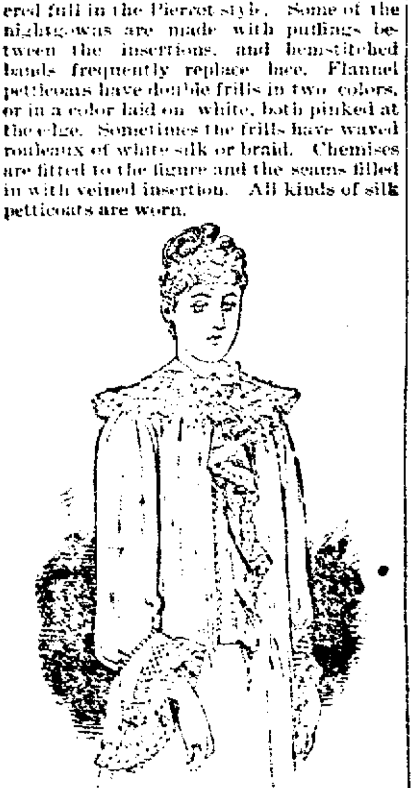
A unique gown for evening wear is shown in the accompanying cut. It is made in clear white muslin. The skirt and demi-train are bordered with a flounce. The low bodice is black velvet, and the sleeves and fichu are of white muslin.

Here are two or three other items about evening gowns: Sleeves for young girls' dresses are often made open on the outside of the arm to show the point of the shoulder. A light blue satin gown brocaded with imperial bees illustrates the return to the fashions of Louis XVIII period in dressmaking. It has a trellis work of yellow feather like galon round the skirt and the top of the bodice, which at the neck and waist is bordered with a ruche. Many dresses are made with embroidered corselets, with narrow gold galons, placed round above the skirt hem, also round the bodices and wrists. The sleeves of all the demi-decollete dresses are made long, but in light material, such as tulle, gauze or muslin, fitting close to the arm. Some have narrow satin ribbon twined round the arm from the elbow.

New Ideas in Underclothing.

The newest idea in underclothing is the embroidered frills in colored cottons, which are applied to nightgowns principally. Many ladies will, however, prefer deep vandyked frills, embroidered at the edge in white, now fashionable in Paris, gathered full in the Pierrot style. Some of the nightgowns are made with puffings between the insertions, and hemstitched bands frequently replace lace. Flannel petticoats have double frills in two colors, or in a color laid on white, both pinked at the edge. Sometimes the frills have waved rouleaux of white silk or braid. Chemises are fitted to the figure and the seams filled in with veined insertion. All kinds of silk petticoats are worn.



NIGHTDRESS IN FINE CAMBRIC.

The nightdress shown in the cut is made in fine cambric, with a sailor collar and cuffs. It is trimmed with insertion down the fronts and with narrow tucks at each side.

The New Ribbons.

The new kinds are mostly reversible, with satin backs and terry or velvet borders of all kinds, as well as the cord edge. There are some curious mixtures of colors like plaids in the stripes and check braid borders and plush borders and entire plush ribbons. Chintz velvet stripes and spot stripes are new, as well as ombred effects. Two inch wide and 2½ inch and [illegible] inch are the usual widths. A narrow width is used for strings, 2 inches wide generally, and in [illegible] velvet. The old cerise color is [illegible] and [illegible] and magenta, [illegible], royal blue and [illegible] naked, tawny browns. Bias [illegible] also are much used.

Startling Facts.

The American people are rapidly becoming a race of nervous wrecks, and the following suggests the best remedy: Alphonso Hempling, of Butler, Pa., swears that when his son was speechless from St. Vitus dance Dr. Miles' great Restorative Nervine cured him. Mrs. J. R. Miller, of Valparaiso, and J. D. Tailor, of Logansport, Ind., each gained 20 pounds from taking it. Mrs. H. A. Gardner, of Vistula, Ind., was cured of 40 to 50 convulsions a day, and much headache, dizziness, backache and nervous prostration by one bottle. My lungs were badly diseased, and my parishioners thought I could live only a few weeks. I took five bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery and am sound and well, gaining 26 pounds in weight."

Arthur Love, manager Love's Funny Folks Combination, writes: "After a thorough trial and convincing evidence, I am confident Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, beats 'em all, and cures when everything else fails. The greatest kindness I can do my many thousand friends is to urge them to try it." Free trial bottles at Flocken's Drug Store. Regular sizes 50 cents and $1.00.

CATARRH

Is a constitutional and not a local disease, and therefore it cannot be cured by local applications. It requires a constitutional remedy like Hood's Sarsaparilla, which, working through the blood, eradicates the impurity which causes and promotes the disease, and effects a permanent cure. Thousands of people testify to the success of Hood's Sarsaparilla as a remedy for catarrh when other preparations had failed.

CATARRH

"I will say I have been troubled for several years with that terribly disagreeable disease, catarrh. I took Hood's Sarsaparilla with the very best results. It cured me of that continual dropping in my throat, and stuffed up feeling. It has also helped my mother, who has taken it for run down state of health and kidney trouble." MRS. S. D. HEATH, Putnam, Conn.

"I have used Hood's Sarsaparilla for catarrh with very satisfactory results. I have received more permanent benefit from it than from any other remedy I have ever tried." M. E. READ, of A. Read & Son, Wauseon, O.

PHYSIOLOGY AND [illegible]

[illegible] physician is credited with the invention of an instrument by which persons [illegible] blind are able to perceive light [illegible] the sense of touch. The instrument consists of an apparatus which converts [illegible] rays into a thermo-electric current [illegible] is perceived by the nerves of [illegible] covering the forehead when the [illegible] is [illegible] upon the part of the [illegible] that the sensations [illegible] by the instrument are thus described by the inventor: "The presence [illegible] of an illuminated object is [illegible] in the perceptive field as a [illegible] warmth. A light object on a [illegible] is perceived as a peculiarly warm sensation, with a sensation [illegible]. The degree of the sensation of warmth increases with the approach of the illuminating object and vice versa. A movement of the feeling of warmth toward the right shows that the light has moved to the left and vice versa. If the warm area moves downward the illuminating object is moving upward, and vice versa."

False Sensations of Cold.

The "Transactions of the Association of the American Physicians" contains a report, by Dr. S. Weir Mitchell, of a number of curious cases of false sensations of cold. In some instances the feeling of cold was accompanied by an actual rise of temperature in the part affected. This peculiar sensation of cold in one case followed an injury, but in others the causation was obscure. One rather remarkable case was that of a lawyer, 57 years of age. During the last few years he has been annoyed by subjective sensations of cold, which are increased by mental application. To relieve these sensations he wears three suits of the heaviest kind of woolen underwear, three pairs of the heaviest woolen socks, felt boots of the heaviest material over his ordinary boots and shoes, and a flannel bandage around his body. At night he wears two of the above mentioned suits, a flannel bandage, woolen socks, and sleeps under five woolen blankets on a feather mattress, with a hair one under it. He always keeps the night temperature of his room at 80, and after a hard day at court from 90 to 95. The sensation of cold is positively painful, though his surface temperature is normal.

Changes in Color of Hair.

It has been doubted by good authority (Hebra and Kaposi) if the hair, after being once developed, can change except by a very gradual process. This doubt is based upon the theory that the hair has no vascular or nerve connection with the general system, and must therefore be independent of nervous or systemic influence. This position is, however, not tenable, writes a correspondent of Science. The clinical evidence is positive that the hair does change color under systemic influences, sometimes gradually and sometimes suddenly. Cases on record are sufficient to prove beyond all reasonable doubt that the hair does suddenly change color under certain circumstances, and that the change takes place in existing hairs.

Remedy for Hives.

About fifteen drops of aromatic spirits of ammonia in a little sugar and water is said to be a good remedy for hives. Salt water is recommended as a good external application. As hives are caused sometimes by indigestion, particularly after eating certain kinds of fruit, attention should be paid to this matter, and articles of food avoided that are supposed to induce it.

To Stop Palpitation of the Heart.

It is not generally known that excessive palpitation of the heart can be promptly stopped by bending double, with the head downward and the arms pendent, so that a temporary congestion of the upper part of the body is produced. This is, however, asserted to be the case by a writer who adds that if the breath be held at the same time the effect of this action is hastened.

SOCIAL ETIQUETTE.

Fashionable Customs and Pretty Fancies of the Wedding Season.

Apropos of the "wedding season," Mary Gay Humphreys describes in Harper's Bazar the following as present fashionable usages.

A wedding at home usually takes place in the evening. The invitation in this case is restricted to a single sheet of note paper, and it is "the pleasure of your company" that is craved. The groom and his attendants in this case wear evening dress, while that of the bride is the same as at a church wedding, allowing perhaps a little amelioration in the severity of throat covering and sleeves. A decollete gown would be bad form. The bridemaids have more liberty, and of course dispense with head coverings.

The drawing room is lavishly adorned with flowers. The conventional marriage bell is no longer rung. A bower of smilax wreathed with roses is a graceful substitute. At a wedding of some prominence one end of the room was transformed into a floral chancel and altar.

It is a pretty fancy to give some flower especial honor at a wedding. In the spring, lilies of the valley, narcissus, or apple blossoms; in the summer, roses; in the autumn, the royal chrysanthemums, the many hued asters and autumn leaves. Bridal bouquets of white Japanese chrysanthemums are in vogue this season. The usher has by no means lost his occupation at a home wedding. It is his place and that of his fellows to form an aisle with long satin ribbons from the door to the consecrated spot through which the bridal party is to pass.

The supper at an evening wedding is of the same character as the wedding breakfast, but lighter in respect to game and the heavier dishes. Croquettes are served, but here as at the breakfast, without any accompaniments. The supper room is opened immediately after the ceremony. Dancing is not a feature of a wedding, but it may be a [illegible] adjunct, in which case the bride [illegible] the first quadrille.

When a wedding is private guests are [illegible] to a wedding breakfast. It is [illegible] to have such invitations engraved [illegible] in the form of a [illegible] [illegible] the [illegible]

Used three bottles of Electric Bitters and seven boxes of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and his leg is sound and well. John Speaker, Catawba, O., had five large fever sores on his leg, doctors said he was incurable. One bottle Electric Bitters and one box Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured him entirely. Good Advice to Englishmen.

LONDON, Dec. 5.—In a speech, Sir Richard Everard Webster, attorney general, said he believed that English factors would derive benefit from the world's fair to be held in Chicago in 1892. He expressed the hope that Great Britain would be officially represented at the exhibition, and that no resentment would be shown in consequence of tariff legislation.

Sudden Deaths.

Heart disease is by far the most frequent cause of sudden death, which in three out of four cases is unsuspected. The symptoms are not generally understood. These are: a habit of lying on the right side, short breath, pain or distress in side, back or shoulder, irregular pulse, asthma, weak and hungry spells, wind in stomach, swelling of ankles or dropsy, oppression, dry cough and smothering. Dr. Miles illustrated book on heart disease at Denison & Co. and Hoberman & Co. who sell and guarantee Dr. Miles' unequaled New Heart Cure, and his Restorative Nervine, which cures nervousness, headache, sleeplessness, effects of drinking, etc. It contains no opiates.

SHAKESPEARE

Said something about like this:—

PUT MONEY IN THY PURSE

It is the task that everybody is at, though all do not succeed. It is not much trouble to get it, but the difficulty is to get it in the purse to accumulate. We can help you. Everybody is selling or talking about selling very cheap. We actually do it, sell so that you can save money. We realize the disappointments of a slow season, and, though we have done a handsome business, we want to blear off a heavy stock while it is still seasonable. When we say we are giving exceedingly low prices we mean it, as a long and straightforward business career here has attested.

$10.00.—On every $10 00 purchase we will actually save you enough to buy a really handsome Christmas gift, and we have, too, some very practical and acceptable gifts to sell.

STRUCK BY AN ENGINE.

James Brown, of North Lewisburg, Killed in the C. and E. Yards.

Thursday afternoon, about 5 o'clock. while James Brown was in the west end, in the C. and E. yards, he was struck by yard engine 45, by which he received injuries that resulted in his death.

Brown had been in the office of the Malleable Iron Works but a few minutes before the accident, and had been put out on account of being in a drunken condition. It is supposed he went from there over onto the C. and E. track, and was heedless of the approach of the yard engine. He was struck and knocked down and his limbs fell beneath the grinding wheels. His entire left leg and thigh were crushed off, and his left arm was mutilated to the shoulder: he was also severely bruised on the left side of the head and had several ribs broken.

There was some difficulty in finding a place to take the injured man, and after nearly every house in the immediate neighborhood had been tried, Mrs. Stoffer had humanity enough to open her doors for that purpose. He was then carried to her home and Dr. Rhu sent for. The doctor found the man suffering from such a severe nervous shock and so badly injured that an operation would only result in hastening death, and nothing was done but an attempt to alleviate his suffering.

Brown remained conscious until 8 o'clock in the evening, and during that time told his physician in answer to an inquiry that he had no friends or relatives. He apparently relented of this and then told the doctor that he was from North Lewisburg and that his father and mother resided at that place. A telegram was at once sent to the father, who came to this city immediately.

The young man lapsed into unconsciousness about 8 o'clock and lingered in that condition until 4 o'clock this morning, when he died. He was 23 years of age and single, and the father stated that he had been employed on a gravel train now ballasting the C. and E.

The remains of the unfortunate man were taken to North Lewisburg this morning and will be buried at that place.

TAKEN CARE OF

A Stranger Robbed by the Man Whom He Supposed Was Taking Care of Him.

An individual, giving his name as Ross, went into George Fields' saloon Thursday afternoon and stated that he had been robbed of $30 in money. He said that his home was near Richwood and that he came to Marion Wednesday noon, that he began drinking as soon as he arrived here, and that he asked some one to keep his money for him, he was not sure who it was but said it was in some one of the banks. After leaving the bank he went to the Erie depot, met a stranger there and they took a drink together at Fields' saloon and came up street. After coming up town they drank, as he says, at many places and he, Ross, became very drunk and was unconscious of what happened until about midnight, when he became conscious, and found that he had been taken somewhere south of town and robbed of $30, which he supposed was the amount he had with him when he met the fellow at the depot. He was in a terrible condition, nearly frozen, without money and could not recognize the surroundings. He finally wandered back to town and tried to find his companion, whose name he does not know. He was not successful, however. and went back to Richwood Thursday without money, but with much food for reflection.

Satisfied with the Result.

[Huntington Democrat]

Frank G. Wells, who was in New York representing the Chicago and Erie brakemen at the conference of Erie officials and employes, returned home Tuesday morning. For diplomatic reasons the delegates from the N. Y., P. and O. and C. and E. roads separated from the Erie men and presented their demands in a distinct body. The result was that they were granted every demand except one and are perfectly satisfied with the result. This includes conductors and brakemen. The men on the Erie proper did not receive any concessions. Under the new arrangement the conductors and brakemen on the N. Y., P. and O. and C. and E. receive an advance in wages for certain kinds of work and it will materially increase their wages. They have no further grievances and are highly pleased with the manner in which the conference terminated.

A Bad Foot.

Antonia Carlotch, an Italian employed on an extra gravel train doing ballasting on the C. and E. railroad, received an accident Thursday that will lay him up several weeks. While at work at this place a large shovel was in some way thrown upon his foot, which resulted in the fracture of the first metatarsal bone.

The fellow was taken to the office of the company's surgeon, Dr. Rhu, where his injuries received attention. Carlotch was taken back to his train.

Elks' Memorial.

Marion Lodge No. 32, B. P. O. E. will hold a memorial session Sunday, Dec. 7th, at 3 p. m. All members are requested to be present.

CHEAP!

Is the tempting sauce served with poor dinners, also with mean clothing, and it tempts many men to cheat their bellies and their backs. All who have worn my clothing are convinced that the best is the cheapest. I want to talk to you a little on Tailor-made Suits and Overcoats. There is no earthly excuse for shabbiness. It costs more to go in rags than to dress decently. Shabbiness is a "Luxury." To indulge in it is to lose one's own self-respect and that of one's friends. Shabby dress implies shabby habbits, shabby methods, shabby men. You can all wear Fine Clothing according to the list below:

Men's Black Cheviot Suit -	$9.75, 10.50, 11 00, 14.00 16 00 and 20 00
" " Woosted " -	$3.10, 6.00, 7.75, 8.25, 12 00, 15 00, and 18.00
" Gray Cassimeres at - - -	$10.00, 12 00, 14.00 and 15.00
" Imported Tricot Suits in Black Cutaways - - - -	$22.00
" " " " " Blue Sack, Tailor-made - -	$25.00
" " Black Worsted Coat and Vest, Tailor-made - -	$18.00

No Excellence Without Labor.

[Minneapolis Journal, Nov. 23.]

In one of the sermons preached by Dr. Smith Baker within the last few sundays he was impressing the fact on his audience that no great thing is done without preparation. He hit upon a happy illustration in the cultured voice of Mrs. Johnston-Bishop, which has charmed so many hearers in Minneapolis. Dr. Baker and the great singer are cousins and have been friends since her girlhood.

"My friend, Mrs. Johnston-Bishop, did not wake up some morning with her wonderful gift of sweet song," said the doctor, "but it came from the hard work of preparation through childhood and youth so that the liquid notes flow from her lips fresh and pure as the crystal water from a hillside fountain. From her sick chamber in her hours of illness I have heard songs as sweet as those of the morning birds. Preparation did it. No great thing is done without preparation."

And the audience thought that was a point well put.
